bekal fort

Bekal Fort was primarily a military strong hold in the Malabar area. It has been built during the reign of the Chirakal Rajas. It was among a series of fort built by Sivappa Nayak of Bendoor. Bekal fort was very important to Tipu Sultan ,the son of Hyder Ali as a base for his military operations in Malabar. There is plenty of archaeological evidence that support the presence of the Mysore Sultan. It plaed a significant role in the military venture and administrative functions of British also. Today it is a vital historical monument and one of the five centres selected by the govt. Of India. It is one of the finest tourist attractions on the northern tip of 'Gods Own Country'
