

Seek and find

The picture given below are the remains related to the funeral practices in ancient Kerala

Umbrella stone (kudakkallu )

Umbrella stone are built by standing two flat stones in a little slanting position. A cairn circle is placed above it. It is look like an umbrella . That is why the are known as umbrella stones

Flat Stone (Muniara )

Muniyaras are in the shape of tables. Flat stone are in the main part. A room forms when the flat stones join together.

Nannangadi

Nannagadis are big clay jars containing remains of the dead.

In Search of Data

Plow : For ploughing

Jug : collect and for pouring water

Whisper : For blowing

Water cycle : For drawing water

Randall : For lighting